Many Thanks
 Father Brad and SPP Parish would sincerely like to commend and thank the SPP women's group who have done so much for our parish. Recently the processional cross was re-plated and paid for by the Women of Sts. Peter & Paul. This is just one of the many items they have endeavored to make beautiful for our Liturgy. Thank you ladies and God's blessings.

Still Working on the Parish Cookbook

I am looking for copies of the Chocolate Fantasy books that would have the recipes in them. We thought it might be neat to have a special section in our cookbook for those recipes. Does someone have copies of the CF books with the recipes or know of someone who might? Also, is there anyone who might like to type recipes? We sure would like some wonderful recipes from our older parishioners. We didn't get very many and we will miss those in our/your parish cookbook. Call Judy Salisbury for more info. 983-2915.—Eve.

Thank You

The school would like to extend a huge thank you to Carol Hughes. She just finished writing 100 reading comprehension tests for library books at the school! Thank you so much, Carol.

From SPP Principal

This past week was the last week of school. Tuesday was spent cleaning out desks and shelves. Wednesday we had our school picnic. On Thursday, we attended a Communion Service with Deacon Don presiding. All students spent time in the classroom where they will be next year. Finally, we had a closing ceremony. In it we reminisced about the good times we had over the past year. We also had a forgiveness ceremony~ burning memories of times that were not so good. We also spoke of what we are looking forward to next year.

Thank you to all our parishioners for sharing their time, talents, treasures and prayers so that we can have a Catholic school at Sts. Peter & Paul.

Help Needed for Just An Hour or Two

Is there anyone who would be willing to take the school's recycling to recycle day at Fenn this month on June 15th. Normally Teresa Seloske does it, but she'll be out of town that day. There will be about 8 large bags of paper, and some cardboard. Anyone interested in helping out with this, please call Teresa at 983-2695
